TUESDAY EVENING. MAR. 13, 1906.

Red, White, Green Sens. The colors of pure ocean water and the varying shades observed where impurities are met with are diversified by the coloring effects of the enormous multitudes of various forms of organized life which sometimes mask the natural color of the surface of the sea and tinge extensive areas with remarkable colors. Red appears to be most frequently met with. In the southern parts of the Red sea and in the Arabian guif large areas are colored blood red by microscopic animalculae, and in the Indian ocean similar forms of life cause, in addition to red, milk white or yellow spots of great extent, the of which is frequently alarming to the ignorant sailor. Off the Guinea coast ships sometimes appear to float in milk. Extensive red streaks are also known to occur in the south Atlantic and south Pacific, which are caused by hosts of small red crus-The "Vermilion sea" of California owes its brilliant color to infusoria. Areas colored green have been noted, especially in the arctic regions, which are due to myriads of diatoms, and in some portions of the antarctic seas diatoms of rusty color make the water a dirty brown.

How General Butler Lost a Horse, While in front of Petersburg General Butler received information that his favorite horse, Almond Eye, had been accidentally killed by falling into a ravine. Upon the departure of his informant he ordered an Irish servaut to go and skin him.

"What, is Almond Eye dead?" asked

"What's that to you? Do as I bid you and ask uo questions." Pat went about his business and in an hour or two returned. "Well, Pat, where have you been all this time?" sternly demanded the gen-

"Skinning the horse, yer honor." "Does it take nearly two hours to perform such an operation?"

"No, yer honor, but then, you see, it tuck bout half an hour to catch him,"

General Butler cast upon his servant such a ferocious look that Pat thought he meditated skinning an Irishman in revenge for the death of his horse.

Value of Butterflies.

When our juniors see the common white cabbage and sulphur wing butterflies or even the superb Monarch and gorgeous Ajax swallowtails flitting through the fields or at times city streets they perhaps never give thought to the fact that butterflies may be of commercial value. But such is the Some of our domestic butterflies on account of rarity more than beauty command prices from one to several dollars, which collectors gladly pay to insure the completeness of their cabinets. Big prices are paid for some of the magnificent butterflies of the morpho and papilio genera, which are rainbow hued in colors and span five feet in wings. These flourish in trop ical countries, and it is often necessary for museums to send out special expeditions for them. They range from $10 to $100 in value.—Baltimore Herald.

Why do haddocks carry those pe culiar black "finger marks" near the head? Some tell us that they are a memento of the pressure of St. Peter's fingers when he went fishing for the tribute money. On the Yorkshire coast of England they say the devil once determined to build a bridge at Filey. His Satanic majesty did not start the bridge for the convenience of the people, but for the destruction of ships and sailors and the annoyance of fishermen in general. In the progress of his work Old Nick dropped his nammer its to the sea. Snatching at it hastly, he caught a haddock, and all haddocks carry the imprint of his black fingers urchases. We are glad to show our goods. work Old Nick dropped his hammer in-

Conceit is essential to rapid advancement-not overconceit, but conceit in reasonable volume. The conceit of youth becomes the assurance of old age. If you're master of your conceit, you have back of you a slave of unlimated assistance. If conceit is your mas-ter, you're doomed to failure. But don't cultivate self conceit. It's a lusty plant. Give it half a chance and it will outgrow your self respect.—N. C. Fowler, Jr., in "Gumption."

Diagnosis. "I regret to say," remarked the young physician, "that you have peristaltic neurilemma. The symptoms are unmistakable."

"Dear me!" exclaimed the astonished patient. "What in the world is peristaltic neurllemma, doctor?"

"It is, sir, the disease from which you are suffering," answered the young M. D. haughtily.-Chicago News.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorills, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the bresthing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ors A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for threat and lung troubles." A Chicago Alderman Owes His Elec-tion to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoris says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoris St., Chicago. 'Two years ago during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several does that day, kept right on talking through the cam paign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council " This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F.
